Federal Tax Return Frequently asked questions

How long will it take to process my US tax return?

The Federal Tax Office usually takes about 4 weeks after you mail your paper return to process US tax applications.

What is the April 15th deadline?

The April 15th tax deadline is the date by which all tax returns must be filed for the previous year

If you owe the tax office money and you don't file your tax return by April 15th, the US tax authorities will impose late filing penalties and interest on the amount you owe so the sooner you apply the better.

How do I know what's happening with my tax return?

You can check the status of your federal tax return at any time by using "Where's My Refund?", an interactive tool available on www.irs.gov. You can also call the IRS TeleTax System at (800) 829-4477 or the IRS Refund Hotline at (800) 829-1954. When you call or visit the IRS website, you will need the following information:

- The first social security number shown on the federal return
- Your filing status (Filing Status from Return)
- The exact amount of the refund shown on your federal return ($amount of the refund)
- Please, allow at least 4 weeks for IRS to process your federal tax return.

What if I don't have a Social Security Number?

If you never received a Social Security Number you will need to organise a temporary number. This is called an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN). If you did not apply for a ITIN within Sprintax, you can still apply for it at www.taxback.com/usa-ITIN-numbers.asp.

What is a W2 form?

To claim your US tax refund, the IRS will need copies of your W2 form(s) or final payslips. The W2 form is the official government form that you receive from your employer(s) in January after the tax year ends. The W2 form shows the amount of money you earned and the amount of tax you paid for that employer.

If you've misplaced your W2(s) / final payslips or you never received it, you will need to request a new one from your employer.

What is a 1042-S form?

If you've worked as a trainee, student, teacher or researcher in the US on a J or F visa, you might have received a 1042-S form instead of a W2 form. You should receive the 1042-S by mid-March of the following tax year. It outlines income such as scholarships, fellowships, self employment or grants and any income exempt from tax because of a tax treaty. We can use either the W2 or 1042-S to apply for your tax refund.

Can I file my taxes electronically?

No. Electronic filing, known as e-filing, is only available to US nationals and residents filing 1040, 1040EZ or 1040A. The 1040NR tax return is the form for non-residents such as J, M Q and F visa holders, is not available in electronic format and so cannot be e-filed.

What taxes can Sprintax file for me?

With Sprintax, you can prepare your own Federal, State, FICA and local state tax returns.

Can I use an international tax treaty?

Depending on your nationality and other conditions you may be able to claim a tax refund under international "tax treaties", which are agreements between the US and other countries that allow you to claim back tax you paid while working abroad. Sprintax always checks if you're eligible for an international tax treaty when we prepare your USA tax return. Your eligibility depends on factors like your nationality, length of stay, stay purpose, type of income, your visa and other.

Could I owe money to the US tax authorities?

Depending on how your employer taxed you and what is the actual tax liability under the tax law, they may owe tax or have a tax refund. If you have tax liability or if other particular factors apply other then you have an obligation to file a tax return. Sprintax takes into consideration all of these factors.

Remember, if you owe money and don't file your return before the April 15 deadline you will get penalties and fines put onto the amount you owe.
